

Sketching Class $45.00

This class is for people just starting out or for those needing some refreshers.

I will teach you how to draw what you see but to look at things like an artist. You will start with easy subjects and when you have mastered that you will be ready to move on to something more challenging.

This class is 4 hours long and can be split into 2 evenings. I provide all the supplies.

