Lori has been teaching Art for over 30 years in Canada and the USA. Now she is opening her home and her Art Studio in the beautiful boreal forest so you can discover your creative side.

Dates for 2017

June 9, 10, 11

September 8, 9, 10

Private dates can be arranged for your group.

This retreat is for Curious Creatives and Free Spirits.

No prior painting or art experience required, just a willingness to explore.

A huge selection of supplies are available for your unlimited use. Lori's studio is well stocked with canvases, acrylic paint, watercolours, ink, Copic markers, Tombow watercolour pens, Inktense pencils and blocks, hand carved stamps, gelli plate printing, paper, and brushes all for your unlimited use. Try new things. Experiment with products you have never tried before.

Dip your brushes and fingers into the paint or brush, splash, smear, and spray it onto your canvas.

There will be plenty of time for relaxing as well. Take a short walk on one of the easy hiking trails or find a comfortable chair on a quiet patio and relax, listen to the breeze in the birch trees, take in the view of the river or enjoy a campfire.

Make it your special weekend to enjoy the fresh air, good company and creative energy.

Healthy meals and snacks will be provided. Choose your bed from one of the guest bedrooms, the secluded cabin, or a cozy bunkhouse.
